

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 10, 1883.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To whom Address all Communications.

At early candle light shut up,
And straightway homeward go.
For thus you'll benefit yourself,
And give the clerks a show.
You'll get a very needed rest,
And then the good wife, maybe,
Providing you behave yourself,
Will let you nurse the baby.
And if you've got no little one,
This simple thing go try—
Close at six, and we will bet
There'll be one by-and-by.

Circuit Court is in session to-day.

HEMP is quoted at $5 in the Lexington market.

REV. M. M. RILEY will preach at Mayslick next Sabbath on the subject of "The New Birth."

CHARLES ALEXANDER, son of Octavius Alexander, died in East Maysville yesterday afternoon.

THE outside of the new court house at Lexington is to be entirely of stone, making the additional cost about $1,500.

MR. J. C. OWENS' famous dog "Brownie" is no more. He departed for the happy land by the poison route. His master is inconsolable.

It is now very probable that the Kentucky Central machine shops will not be removed from Covington at all. It is, of course a great disappointment to Paris.

MESSRS. GEO. COX & SON have a job lot of unlaundried shirts which they are selling for 75 cents. They are equal to any offered in this city and originally sold for $1.

WALTER McDOWELL, who lived in this county some thirty years ago, and his heirs, will be interested in an advertisement printed by Judge Coons elsewhere in this paper.

J. J. Malloy is home again from Notre Dame, Ind., where he graduated with the highest honors in the classical course, and received the degree of A. B. from that University.

COL. FRED. OTTO has received a horse to take the place of old "Charles" in the beer wagon. "Charles" has faithfully performed the duties for twenty-two years and has been made a pensioner for life.

THE Yeoman says: Maysville has a patent flour called "Old Gold," which is as fine as any we have tried. It is probably from the same mill that has been supplying Queen Victoria for the last five or six years.

MR. S. R. ANDERSON, who has an Italian spary at Washington, has kindly sent to the BULLETIN samples of his honey of this season. It is of the best quality and equal to any we have ever seen. The crop the present year, we learn, will be a very good one.

SAMUEL BULGER will be brought to Maysville after an indictment has been reported on his case by the grand-jury, which is now in session. As he will be tried immediately and justice promptly administered, there is no excuse for any undue excitement or lawless demonstration, and there should be none.

The following sales were made on Monday, County Court day, by Mr. Geo. C. Goggin:

3 small cattle.....	$6.00
1 cow.....	47.00
1 cow.....	45.00
1 cow.....	32.00
1 cow.....	63.00
1 bull.....	23.00
1 old horse.....	41.00
1 horse.....	37.00
1 coal oil stove.....	5.00
1 water cooler.....	2.75
1 colt.....	50.00

THE Steamer Ohio is now selling round trip tickets from Cincinnati to Pittsburg for $8, which affords excursionists a fine opportunity to visit an interesting and attractive region of country, at a small cost. Captain John S. Jones, one of the most obliging and popular clerks on the river is in the office of the Ohio, and will give his best attention to the comfort and pleasure of all who may go by this boat. An excursion party might be gotten up here with little effort, and the trip would be a very enjoyable one.

MESSRS. A. R. GLASCOCK & Co., in closing their business house at half past six o'clock every evening are setting an example to the business men of Maysville that ought to be generally followed. There can be nothing lost by early closing, as there is very little business done after six o'clock, and what there is might just as well be transacted before that hour. The employees will be benefitted by such a move and the employers as well. Both, by reason of the extra rest from labor that they get, will be able to do better work and more of it. Let the experiment be tried.

County Court Proceedings.

London Grover resigned as overseer of roads in road district No. —, in Sardis precinct, and Frank Tuel was appointed in his stead.

It was ordered that the following parties be appointed as officers of election for the election to be held Monday, August 6, 1883, Perry Jefferson, Sheriff of Mason county, making the appointment of sheriffs of said elections, viz:

Fern Leaf No. 12.—J. B. Burgess and S. E. Martin, judges; J. C. Savage, clerk; B. W. Woods, sheriff; J. Chandler and John J. Thompson, tellers.

The sheriff was ordered to notify said officers of the election to hold said election and make return thereof according to law, also said tellers, to make a statement of all the citizens in their respective districts entitled to vote for representation at said election, under act of April 24, 1882.

Daniel P. Judd was appointed and qualified as constable in Maysville district No. 1, to fill the vacancy in that office until his successor is elected and qualified. S. N. Newell, and A. Honan sureties.

On petition it was ordered that the question as to whether license be granted for the sale of spiritous liquors, &c., in Dover precinct, be submitted to the voters therein at the coming August election.

Perry Jefferson, sheriff, executed bond with Charles B. Pearce, John H. Wilson, H. D. Watson, John T. Wilson and J. F. Perrie sureties for the collection of the sinking fund of Mason county for the present year.

Elizabeth F. Johnson qualified, as guardian of Bettie P. Johnson, a minor over 14 years of age.

Same, qualified as guardian of Wm. Johnson, Ethel Johnson, and Harriett Johnson, minors under fourteen years of age.

THE following named pupils attending the Academy of the Visitation were awarded premiums for excellence in their studies:

An elegant gold pen for attention in penmanship, first class, was drawn by Misses H. Owens, N. Byrne, S. Christie, A. Hord, B. Morgan, K. Lucas, M. Scott, T. Malloy, K. Bledsoe, M. Ryan, L. Watson, L. Sadler, M. Durrett, T. Cliff, E. Hackett and S. Coburn. Miss Lucy Watson being the successful one.

The gold pen in the second class for attention in penmanship was drawn for by Misses M. O'Donnell, M. Cummings, A. Alexander, R. Hechinger, J. Gleason, M. McHugh, O'Mara, M. Archdeacon, M. Conley and E. Sparks. Miss E. Sparks being the winner.

Crowns for the observance of rules were awarded to Misses H. Owens, Rena Small, N. Byrne, A. Hord, S. Coburn, J. Gleason, M. McHugh, B. Morgan, L. Sadler, K. Lucas, T. Cliff and J. Frzee.

Premiums for diligence were awarded to Misses H. Owens, N. Byrne, A. Hord, M. Scott, B. Morgan, K. Lucas, S. Christie, M. Ryan, E. Hackett, K. Bledsoe, T. Cliff, S. Coburn, L. Sadler, L. Watson, M. Durrett, M. Walton, M. McHugh, J. Gleason, A. Alexander, M. Archdeacon, N. Fitzgerald, M. Lucas, M. Conley, B. Schaefer, M. Green, M. Cummings, E. Sparks, A. O. Durrett, E. Platt, M. Niland and A. Premiums for domestic economy to Misses B. Schaefer and J. Gleason.

Premium for rapidity in addition was drawn by Miss A. Grant.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. I. Brotherton will leave to-day for Esculapia Springs.

Miss Anna Stockton is visiting the family of Major H. T. Stanton, at Frankfort.

Miss Maggie Redmond and Mr. John Redmond, of Covington, are the guests of Mr. Jas. Redmond, of this city.

Mr. J. W. Robb, of Vanceburg, was in Maysville, Monday, and called to see the BULLETIN. He is a welcome visitor.

Mr. John Hunt will leave to-day for Esculapia Springs, where he expects to spend several weeks for the benefit of his health.

THE improvements in electric lighting made by the United States Electric Light Company have lately strengthened its position greatly; and the franchises are daily growing more valuable. Money invested in electric lighting promises to be exceedingly profitable.

Excursionists, get your accident insurance ticket before you leave. It costs but 25 cents a day for a $3,000 ticket. M. F. MARSH, Agent.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Who was that lovely blonde with the quizzical smile who passed us on Second street and gave us such a smiling smile?

Mrs. George Schlitz, of Ohio avenue, is expecting a young lady friend from Ripley who, no doubt, will have a charming time.

We have just enough religion to make us hate, but not enough to make us love one another. It is awful, but true, all the same.

Moonlight fete's are no longer in vogue in Aberdeen, having become too common in our neighboring city to be any longer appreciated.

We won't say any more about the Orpheus Club, for our expectations got somewhat confused and it makes it worse, worse, worse.

A Chicago editor wrote "pale stricken citizens," the typo made it "prairie stricken citizens." No matter how they flatter themselves they certainly can make some comical blunders.

Fred. Deltrich drives one of the noblest little gigs on our boulevard, with the exception of a suburban body which drives with a dapper gray with the jaunty lines of an experienced horsewoman.

Squire Beasley will never get through with his improvements. White-washing and papering is his hobby, and he is not likely to place one of the most attractive villas on the pike. What does it all mean, anyway?

Mrs. Robert Brookover gave one of her charming socials Friday night. Music and the sparkling conversation added zest to the entertainment, as the night was very warm the refreshments were more than refreshing.

The egregious vanity of some people is remarkable. They apply to themelves any inferior compliment not at all intended for them, through their egotistical vanity they cannot think any one but themselves could be meant.

The improvements to the new school house would be greatly enhanced by the erection of a tower, having a town clock placed in it, and thus enable the people here of regulating their time, independent of Maysville's superb clock.

The supper given on the 4th and 5th of July was largely attended. They were packed in that hall like a box of sardines. It was all the young could do to serve ice cream to the wild crowd. One gentleman ate so much he compared himself to a frozen icicle. He is still standing in the sea to thaw out.

That reporter who writes for the DAILY BULLETIN and signs himself "One Eye Open," we would think he certainly needd ferret out some news, for that matter to be a reporter. At least, we speak from experience and find it a task with both eyes open to see anything to furnish items of an interesting character.

In years gone by several young ladies became animated in a hot discussion concerning the cupola on the Methodist Church, as they viewed it from the Maysville hillside. One said it was a disgrace, for that matter the church with a white skirt, red basque and a green sun bonnet. The others said it was nothing of the kind. Nevertheless, it caused as hot an argument as politics.

COUNTY POINTS.

SHANNON.

We had a fine rain Saturday night and Sunday. Everything is going to the vegetable kingdom looking very much better.

A number of our boys took in the Blue Light Saturday night. The best of our young ladies in the party would find it was a very dry party.

A very pleasant little party consisting of Misses Dora Berry and P. Marie Herndon, Mrs. W. T. Browning and W. J. Hanson, were here Saturday night. Dr. W. W. Aikin and wife, of Sherburne, Flemington, Ky.

Many thanks to the Sardis correspondent for the compliment which he paid to our Sunday School. Would be glad to have him attend often.

GLENNVILLE.

Miss Alice McClure has returned home from school at Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mr. Henry Barkley and wife, of Maysville, were visiting James Barkley Sunday.

Born—At Glenville, Ky., July 3rd, 1883, to the wife of Mr. John J. Farrar, twins, a son and daughter.

Prof. Rast of Danville, Ky., will deliver a temperance lecture at the Presbyterian Church, Friday night, July 13. All are invited to come.

Elder J. F. Browne was here last week renewing the work for the Glenville Academy. The committee have appointed R. A. Marshall to attend to the present work, which he is doing with good success. The board of officers will meet next Saturday evening to arrange for putting up the house. We are glad to see this enterprise once more spring up in our country. Thanks are due to the people of Maysville and Manchester who are helping us with our institution.

MURPHYVILLE.

Dear Charley: When you left this village some two weeks ago you requested me to write you a letter. I did do so, and in a very short time, as there is not a great sight of that article around here. The colored folks had a "festival" in their new church house, and you were not left out, and, indeed, in the shakels, as it were, to a great extent, I did not learn who walked away with the prize cake. Oh, you missed the picnic on the 4th. So did the rest of the young men; all because about a dozen young ladies went to Tom Worthington's on that day, to celebrate, and never said a word to us fellows.

Right; we will get you with them by getting to the crowd of boys and go to the Blue Licks some Sunday. Miss Maggie Northcutt, a very prepossessing young lady of Maysville, was visiting at the "Blue Licks" on Sunday. She was very much interested in the picnic, and was very much interested in the picnic, and was very much interested in the picnic.

How did you get the foolish idea into your head that we were going to have a new school house? Why, of course not. No, never. I mean not soon. The one we have is good enough to do for a while. With a little patching up it will still be a very good place for the school children to play "freeze-out" next winter; and then we want to keep it for the good it has done. No, Charley, we will not build a new house this summer. No, we will not. Let the old shed stand, and when it tumbles down let the children to some tobacco barn or shed, where there is plenty of room, and where they cannot slip through the holes in the building, and carry on the school as it said be done.

I have not heard of much sickness. Wheat has been seeded, most of the corn has had its last plowing, and now for the weeds in the tobacco. I have been at work so close, Charley, that I have not had time to go any place but school and home, but have told you all the news I could find with

ONE EYE OPEN.

TROTTER RACE—There will be a trotting race at the Maysville course next Saturday afternoon, which will be conducted under the rules of the National Association. The following well-known horses have been entered and will start:

Thompson & Fox enters Lizzie T. Harper Bros. enters Charles Walker. Cliff Bros. enters Dick Cliff.

Mr. Fowler enters Sammie Fowler. Ben. Myall enters Straight Goods. Jessie Calvert enters Jim Piper. Ed. Berry enters Dr. Keiston.

There will be pool selling at Mayslick on Friday night and at the grounds on Saturday afternoon.

C. G. WORTHINGTON,
General Manager.

BOOK BINDERY.—Persons desiring book binding will leave it at any of the book stores. j21d2w H. H. COX.

It is the opinion of John G. Carlisle that the prospects of the Democrats have not been as good since 1856 as they are the present year. He says the election in Ohio this fall will show that the revolution is not going backward.
